

1. There are many different and successful styles of City Councilmembers. How would you describe your style? What do you think is most important to being a quality City Councilmember.
2. How would you describe the City to a friend or family member not familiar with our community?
3. The City of Savage has become more diverse over the past two decades. Do you think this affects how the City should provide services?
4. Do you think the City should stay in the municipal liquor business or get out?
5. What do you believe the City's role in Economic Development should be? For instance, do you think the City should take a hands off approach and or be more aggressive?
6. How do you think the City should guide development as it reaches full build out and after?
7. What is the most important issue facing the City of Savage in the next five years?
8. The State legislature recently made edible THC products more widely available. What are your thoughts on how cities (or County and State) should address these new products.
9. What is your position on removing the "Dan Patch Moratorium", also called the "gag order", and how would implementing a commuter line through Savage affect its businesses and residents?
10. How much input should Savage have on any discussions between Burnsville and Waste Management regarding the build-up of the landfill site in Burnsville and its impact on the Savage drinking water and local environment?